

Looking ahead...

Global Health and Faith Inspired Communities

June 23, 2015

Capetown

Katherine Marshall

Berkley Center, Georgetown University

World Faiths Development Dialogue

Where we have come: the journey

- Second forum, a tradition!
- Continuity*, conversations picked up
- Mix of sectors, regions, religious traditions, approaches.
- Focus on youth
- Different*: Richer partnership: Regnier and EFSA, Jorge involved, Chef d'orchestre Jean-Francois and Olivia. WFDD
- More conscious focus on social entrepreneurship, social business, business
- Global Fund emphasis
- Grounding in South Africa: HIV and AIDS (10% of population)
- Missing: Muslims, other traditions

AIDS stakeholders and donors in one African country

“Edge of Chaos”

Some highlights/challenges

- Inspiration of people, and what they do
- Reminders of challenges: large. Religion, Context of MDGs, SDGs. Climate change.
- Violence present but...

- Problems/challenges: Instrumentalization. Governance, governments relations.
- Some unease on religion

Scapegoat

Religion complex

Zapiro is on leave. This is a classic rerun.

Challenges ahead

- Partnerships: complementarity. He who pays the piper. Engagement, casual assumptions about agreement. Scale. Honesty
- Social business/entrepreneurship. Money drying up. Bottom of pyramid, last mile
- Movements: new technologies, media. Mobilization: end poverty. Networks
- Safe space and integrity

- What next? JF!
